

Lots to do

Today's monthly meeting was packed with actionable items and many of us have some homework to do before next month's meeting. One item that the executive discussed at the end of the meeting was to migrate the meeting minutes over to this website. Patrick has started the process and members can now find them in the Members' Corner.

