OpenStreetMap

OpenStreetMap is like Wikipedia for maps. It's built by the community using aerial imagery, GPS devices, or existing public domain maps. The maps can be viewed or edited online in a browser, or using various apps.

Up-To-Date

One advantage of OpenStreetMap (on the right) is that it can get updated more quickly than Google Maps (on the left). For example, here's a new street that I added in Gibsons over a month ago:
