

Math

- Testing `\LaTeX{}$: \int_{-\infty}^{\alpha} x_{\alpha}^2 dx\`
- `\x^2\`
- Note that because `\LaTeX{}$` is invoked by using two `$`, the regular dollar sign cannot be used normally. As such, a dollar sign needs to be sandwiched between four `%` signs. For example, $100 is typed as `<code>$100</code>`.